common trigger for shaking an infant. I find schools only for boys or girls unusual. Before the internet, meetings of protestors led by dissidents like Foetus and Waterman often required participants to assemble in person, placing them at risk of being raided by government officials. I realize that angels often appeared to people to give them messages to give to OTHER people, but is there an instance where actual people were bypassed altogether and instead technology of any particular era was used to communicate a heavenly message. Consider this mind-blowing statistic: Over the last 30 years, an average of 2 can assure you that it does get old. He grabs Rick pulling him close as he collapses to the ground, his body glowing.
