The book was entertaining at times, but overall, I didn't really care for it, and it is rare I say that about a book I review.

As You Are

Good rapport with the doctor, launch meetings, reputation of the company, quality of the drug and brand names significantly influenced prescription behaviour, while direct mailers, advertisements in journals and giving letter pads and other brand reminders were less effective. Everyone has a job and nobody goes hungry, women are now equal to men, and violence and sexual assault are intolerable.

Ash and Echoes (Blessed Epoch Book 1)

No details are omitted, no problem concerning its origins and sources is left unexplored, no connection or comparison with philosophical and economic systems is overlooked. It had been a grueling primary campaign through the poverty-stricken state.
